Notices

The Marxist Literary Group has announced the third Summer Institute for the Study of Culture and Society, June 22 - July 3, 1981 in St. Cloud, Minn. Topics: Marxist Theory of History; Mass Culture and Everyday Life; Marxism and Feminism; and Race and Class. For information please write: Jim Kavanaugh, English Department, Princeton University, Princeton, N.J., 08540, U.S.A.

Proposals are now being accepted for consideration for the ninth presentation of the Loyola University of Chicago Lecture Series in Political Analysis, to be held in 1982. Since its founding in 1968, the Lecture Series has provided a forum in which distinguished political philosophers have presented their work to a public audience over a period of two weeks. The lectures, in revised form, are then published as books in the continuing series.

The scholars who have thus far participated in the Lecture Series include: Henry S. Kariel, Martin Diamond, Eugene Miller, Mulford Q. Sibley, Christian Bay, Glen Tinder, and Fred R. Dallmayr.

Participants are expected to present six separate lectures on a general theme of contemporary political philosophy. Proposals should include a brief vita, an outline of the theme, tentative titles of the lectures, and an approximate date schedule. Please send materials and inquiries for further details to: Professor Richard S. Hartigan, Department of Political Science, Loyola University of Chicago, 6525 N. Sheridan Road, Chicago, Illinois 60626.
